CHECK POINT OBTAINS ACCEPTANCE LEVEL TO INITIATE COMPULSORY REDEMPTION OF ALL OF THE SHARES OF PROTECT DATA

RAMAT-GAN, Israel, and STOCKHOLM, Sweden, -- January 22, 2007 — Check Point® Software Technologies Ltd. (NASDAQ: CHKP), the worldwide leader in securing the Internet, today announced that it has obtained approximately 92.4 percent of the shares of Protect Data AB (publ) (PROT.ST).

Following the completion and extension of its cash tender offer to acquire Protect Data on January 11, 2007, Check Point has acquired an additional 1,241,400 shares, or 5.4 percent, of Protect Data in the market and through acceptance of the extended offer. Check Point has acted through its wholly-owned subsidiary C.P.S.T. Sweden Holdings AB.

Together with shares and warrants previously acquired through the tender offer, Check Point's holding in Protect Data amounts to 21,253,634 shares and 104,700 warrants. On a fully diluted basis, the shares and warrants represent approximately 92.4 percent of the shares and votes of Protect Data.¹

Today, Monday, January 22, 2007, is the last day to accept Check Point's offer. Settlement of valid acceptances received by the end of today is expected to commence on or about February 1, 2007.

Check Point will continue to buy shares in the market at the offer price of SEK 187 per share, and will initiate a compulsory redemption procedure to acquire the remaining shares and warrants in Protect Data as soon as possible. Check Point will also initiate a delisting of the shares in Protect Data from the Stockholm Stock Exchange.

Forward-looking statements

This press release and related offer documentation may contain forward-looking statements. These statements appear throughout such documentation and are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the expected future business of Protect Data, Check Point and/or Check Point Holdings resulting from and following the Offer. These statements reflect Protect Data's or Check Point Holdings' respective management's current expectations based upon information currently available to them and are subject to various assumptions, as well as risks and uncertainties that may be outside of their control. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied in such forward-looking statements as a result of a number of factors, including: the parties may not be able to achieve all of the benefits of the transaction within the expected time frames or at all; Check Point may experience unanticipated expenses in connection with the acquisition; Check Point may not be able to successfully integrate Pointsec's operations into those of Check Point and may experience a loss of customers, employees and business disruption; and other factors described in Check Point's Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2005 which is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Any such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made and neither Check Point, Check Point Holdings nor Protect Data undertake any obligation to update or revise any of them, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
